On 01-03-95 at approximately 1900 hours, Investigators were contacted and requested to respond to the location to determine the circumstances surrounding an officer involved shooting. Sgt. Paul Mondry, [redacted], and Detective Susan Coleman, [redacted], were dispatched to assist investigating officers and to prepare a report detailing and describing the crime scene. Their report detailing their actions and observations will become a permanent part of this file.

Upon arrival at the scene, Investigators contacted handling Deputy STEVE OWEN, #[redacted], SCAT G1, Antelope Valley Station, who escorted Investigators through the scene, explaining what had transpired.

After viewing the scene, Investigators responded to Antelope Valley Station to conduct interviews with the victims and witnesses. These interviews were tape-recorded, and a synopsis of those recordings are as follows:

On 01-03-95 at approximately 2330 hours, Investigators interviewed Victim #1, [redacted], FB/39, who stated she lives at the location with Suspect Hanible and her [redacted], Victims [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] [redacted]. Victim [redacted] related that after doing errands, she returned home at noon today. She and Suspect Hanible began drinking and playing cards. Suspect Hanible drank 1 1/2 48 ounce bottles of beer and an entire bottle of brandy. He became extremely irate and started calling her names, then slapped her across the face with his open hand. Victim [redacted] and Suspect Hanible were in the bedroom, and she walked away from him and went into the kitchen. Suspect Hanible followed, continuing to yell and berate her. Her [redacted] told Suspect Hanible, "Leave [redacted] alone." Suspect Hanible grabbed her [redacted] and threw him across the room, into a wall. This caused Victim [redacted] to become angry and then fearful. She dialed "911" and held the phone in her lap so the operator could hear what was occurring at her residence. Suspect Hanible continued yelling and then broke out the east facing dining room window.

When the deputies arrived, they removed Suspect Hanible and left with him, handcuffed in the radio car. She immediately began packing and called a taxi to take her to her [redacted] house in [redacted]. While she was in the kitchen packing groceries, Suspect Hanible returned. Victim [redacted] began screaming, grabbed a steak knife from the kitchen and ran out the kitchen door, into the backyard. As Suspect Hanible pursued her, she observed a gun in his hand. He pointed the gun at his head and then at hers, repeatedly pulling the trigger, but the gun never fired. Suspect Hanible stated over and over, "I'm going to blow my head off. I'm going to shoot myself. I'm going to shoot you. You're not going to leave me." Suspect Hanible hit her in the head with the gun, causing her to fall down. Victim [redacted] fought back and was able to knock Suspect Hanible down. She ran back inside the house through the back door and out through the front door, with Suspect Hanible pursuing her. She saw the taxi cab, parked in her driveway, with its engine running. She thought Suspect Hanible had stolen the cab because she did not see the cab driver. She began screaming for [redacted] because she didn't know where they were, and she feared for their safety. She saw the deputies around the front of her house, both in the street and in her neighbor's front yard. As she ran out the front door, she slipped in the mud, which allowed Suspect Hanible to grab her and then repeatedly hit her in the head with his gun.

Suspect Hanible attempted to force Victim [redacted] into the cab while continuing to wave the gun around. Victim [redacted] heard the deputies repeatedly yelling at Suspect Hanible, "Let her go." Victim [redacted] stated during the entire incident, she had the knife in her hand but never thought of stabbing Suspect Hanible. When Victim [redacted] was finally able to separate herself from Suspect Hanible, she heard the deputies fire their guns. When she saw Suspect Hanible fall down, she ran towards the deputies.

Victim [redacted] described Suspect Hanible as being drunk. He kept telling the deputies, "Go ahead and shoot me. I'm ready to die. I want to die." The deputies repeatedly told him, "Drop the gun. Lay down on the ground. Let her go."

Victim [redacted] stated she met Suspect Hanible in March, 1993, through a mutual friend, and they started dating. Suspect Hanible went to jail in February, 1994, for a weapons violation and was released November, 1994. After being released from jail, Suspect Hanible moved in with her and [redacted]. [redacted] and does not work. He has a drinking problem but has never hit her or her children before this day. She stated when the deputies first removed Suspect Hanible from her house, she thought they would keep him until he sobered up, which would give her time to leave. Victim [redacted] added she had called the police to her residence on numerous prior occasions because Suspect Hanible became verbally abusive when drinking. She never had him arrested because he had either left the house or gone to sleep by the time the police arrived.

On 01-03-95 at approximately 2335 hours, Investigators interviewed DEPUTY LAUREN BROWN, MW/32, #[redacted], unit 111D P.M.'s, [redacted]. Deputy Brown stated he was at the location earlier this evening regarding a possible spousal abuse call. The first time he was dispatched to the location, he was met at the front door by Victims [redacted] and [redacted]. They were both hysterical and crying. Victim [redacted] told Deputy Brown his [redacted] were arguing, and his [redacted] had slapped his [redacted] They were both in the backyard fighting. Deputy Brown immediately proceeded to the backyard along the west side of the garage and observed Victim [redacted] sitting on the grass crying. As he approached the rear yard, he caught a glimpse of a male running towards the back door of the house. He pursued the male, and as Deputy Brown entered the back door, he observed the front screen door closing. Believing the male exited the house through the front door, he continued his pursuit. As Deputy Brown exited the front door, he observed Deputy Donnan detaining the male at gunpoint. Deputies Brown and Donnan handcuffed this male and placed him in Deputy Brown's radio car. While they were doing this, Sergeant [redacted] and Deputy Juarez arrived. Deputy Juarez maintained control of the suspect while Deputies Brown, Donnan, and Sergeant [redacted] contacted Victim [redacted] inside her house.

Victim [redacted] stated the man was her [redacted]. He had been drinking and possibly smoking marijuana. She stated he had gotten angry at her and slapped her across the face. He had also thrown her [redacted] against the living room wall. Deputy Brown checked both victims but did not observe any visible injuries. He advised Victim [redacted] of her options regarding a citizen's arrest. She indicated she only wanted her [redacted] taken away from the location to give her time to pack and go to her [redacted]

Deputy Brown stated Victim [redacted] told him the suspect might have a gun hidden inside her house. At Victim [redacted]'s request, Deputy Brown conducted a search for the gun, which met with negative results.

Deputy Brown ascertained Suspect Hanible's [redacted] lived a short distance away and agreed to take him there. Deputy Brown, followed by Deputy Donnan, transported Suspect Hanible to [redacted], where he contacted the suspect's [redacted]. She agreed to allow her [redacted] to remain at her residence. Before leaving, Deputy Brown warned and advised Suspect Hanible about staying away from Victim [redacted] and to remain at his mother's until he could "cool off." Deputy Brown stated this entire incident took approximately 20 minutes.

Deputies Brown and Donnan drove a short distance away to complete paperwork.

A short time later, Deputy Brown heard another unit being dispatched to Victim [redacted]'s residence regarding a "woman screaming for help call." Deputy Brown advised responding units that he and Deputy Donnan were also responding and provided information regarding his previous call at the location. When Deputies Brown and Donnan arrived, they parked their radio cars in front of and slightly west of [redacted]. Deputy Brown observed a radio car directly across from [redacted], parked facing west, on the north side of the street and a taxi cab parked in the driveway. He sought cover behind his radio car. He was not aware of the position Deputy Donnan had assumed. He stated he could hear the Suspect Hanible and Victim [redacted] "yelling and screaming."

While maintaining a position behind his radio car, he observed someone's hand, with a gun in it, extending out from behind the northeast corner of Victim [redacted]'s residence. As other units were arriving, he heard a deputy advise the suspect was "417 and holding a hostage." Deputy Brown changed his position to in front of the garage at [redacted], directly west of Victim [redacted]'s residence. Deputy Brown then observed the suspect waving his gun while Victim [redacted] was screaming. He momentarily lost sight of them when seconds later, Victim [redacted] came running out the front door of the residence, pursued by the suspect. She was trapped by a chain link fence at the northwest corner of her house. She slipped and fell in the mud, at which time, Suspect Hanible grabbed her and put her in a "headlock." Suspect Hanible continued to alternately point his gun at Victim [redacted], himself, and the deputies while shouting, "Kill me. Shoot me. Or I'm going to kill her."

Deputy Brown and the other deputies continued to order the suspect to drop his weapon and get away from Victim [redacted]. The suspect repeatedly stated, "Kill me. Shoot me. Or I'll kill her" while he struck Victim [redacted] on the head with his gun. Deputy Brown attempted to talk the suspect into giving up and dropping his weapon, to no avail. Deputy Brown repositioned himself, along with Deputy Donnan and Sergeant [redacted] behind a cinder block wall, located between Victim [redacted]'s residence and the residence immediately to the west. Sometime during this incident, Deputy Brown observed a male White flee from the front of Victim [redacted]'s residence and jump over this cinder block wall, towards them. He believed the male was the cab driver and advised him to seek cover.

Deputy Brown related Sergeant [redacted] had positioned himself at the north end of the cinder block wall, creating a better vantage point from which to fire the "Arwen". Sergeant [redacted] fired the "Arwen," striking the suspect in his upper left chest. This appeared to make the suspect angry. Sergeant [redacted] fired again as the suspect pointed his weapon at them and fired one time. Deputy Brown observed a muzzle flash emitting from the suspect's gun, and he returned fire, directing two to three shots at the suspect. He vaguely recalled possibly transmitting a "998 call." He didn't recall hearing any other gunshots.

A moment later, he heard a deputy advise the suspect was down. He told Victim [redacted] to run towards him, and she complied. Sergeant [redacted] and several other deputies approached the suspect, disarmed him, and took him into custody.

On 01-06-95 Deputy Brown contacted Investigators, advising he recalled before Sergeant [redacted] fired the "Arwen", the suspect pointed the gun at either his own or Victim [redacted]'s head and pulled the trigger. Deputy Brown heard a "click" and thought the weapon had either misfired or wasn't loaded. He believes he relayed this information to the other assisting units.

On 01-04-95 at approximately 0020 hours, Investigators interviewed Deputy PAUL DONNAN, MW/28, #[redacted], Unit 111T2 P.M.'s, 1400 to 2200 hours. Deputy Donnan stated the first time he responded to Victim [redacted]'s residence was to assist Deputy Brown regarding a "415 family call." When he arrived, Deputy Brown had already entered the victim's residence. Deputy Donnan exited his vehicle, and as he approached the residence, Suspect Hanible, clad only in boxer shorts, came running out the front door yelling and screaming. Deputy Donnan drew his weapon and ordered Suspect Hanible to stop, but before he could comply, the suspect slipped and fell in the mud. Deputy Brown exited the front door, in pursuit of Suspect Hanible. The suspect was handcuffed and placed in Deputy Brown's radio car. He told them he had been drinking all night and was sick and tired of the police harassing him.

Deputy Juarez arrived and remained with Suspect Hanible while Deputies Donnan and Brown contacted Victim [redacted], who stated the suspect [redacted] and may have a gun inside her house. At Victim [redacted]'s request, they searched the residence for guns. This search met with negative results. Deputy Donnan stated Victim [redacted] told him the suspect had been drinking, yelling, and screaming at her. He also put his fist through the east dining room window and had slapped her across the face. Victim [redacted] stated the suspect gets this way when he drinks, and she wasn't going to tolerate it anymore. Victim [redacted] wanted the suspect removed from her residence but was not desirous of prosecution. Deputy Donnan recalled Victim [redacted]'s two [redacted] at the location but didn't recall any allegations of harm to them perpetrated by the suspect. Deputy Donnan learned the suspect had a sister who lived nearby, and agreed to take the suspect to her house.

Deputy Donnan stated Deputy Brown transported the suspect to a house on 21st Street west and contacted a female adult who advised it was all right to leave the suspect there. Deputy Donnan stated the suspect was very argumentative and continually cursed at him and Deputy Brown. The suspect was warned and advised about not returning to Victim [redacted]'s residence. Deputies Donnan and Brown drove a short distance away to do paperwork.

Approximately 15 to 20 minutes later, Deputy Donnan heard a radio broadcast regarding a woman screaming at the [redacted] residence. Deputies Donnan and Brown proceeded back to the [redacted]'s residence and parked facing east, in front of [redacted]. Deputy Donnan observed Sergeant [redacted] radio car parked facing west, on the north side of Newgrove Street, directly across from the [redacted] residence. Deputy Donnan stated he sought cover behind Deputy Brown's radio car. He could hear yelling and screaming coming from the northeast corner of the rear yard of the [redacted] house. Deputy Donnan observed the suspect "holding and pushing" Victim [redacted] down on the ground as she was attempting to stand up. He observed the suspect kick Victim [redacted] one time. The suspect began dragging Victim [redacted] in a southerly direction, out of his view.

Deputy Donnan stated he saw something "shiny" in the suspect's right hand during the incident, but from his vantage point, he couldn't determine what the object was. Deputy Donnan stated as the suspect was dragging Victim [redacted] out of his view, he heard a deputy advise that the suspect had a gun. Deputy Donnan stated this was his first knowledge the suspect was armed. Between 15 seconds and 1 minute later, he observed the suspect dragging the victim by her hair and arm out the front door of the house. Deputy Donnan heard Victim [redacted] yelling and screaming and at the same time the suspect was yelling, "Fucking shoot me. Go ahead, fucking shoot me. Do it now. Shoot me." Deputy Donnan stated he and the other deputies told the suspect to put his gun down and not do anything stupid. The suspect ignored their commands.

During this exchange, Deputy Donnan observed Deputy Brown and Sergeant [redacted] position themselves to the west of the [redacted] residence. He observed Deputy Yoshino, adjacent to his radio car, which was parked facing south on Newgrove, in front of the location. Deputy Yoshino was alone, and Deputy Donnan moved his position to the passenger side of Deputy Yoshino's vehicle. Deputy Donnan observed the suspect point his gun at Victim [redacted]'s head and then at him and the other deputies in front of the location. The deputies stopped yelling at the suspect because each time they yelled, the suspect would point the gun at Victim [redacted].

Several other units arrived at the location. Sergeant [redacted] had retrieved the Arwen from the trunk of his radio car and had gone to the west side of the cinder block wall with Deputy Brown. Deputy Donnan again changed his position to behind the cinder block wall and positioned himself to the south of Deputy Brown. The suspect began pistol whipping Victim [redacted]. Sergeant [redacted] fired one or two times at the suspect and appeared to have struck him on the upper torso. This seemed to incite the suspect, who then focused his attention on Sergeant [redacted] Deputy Donnan heard the suspect state, "Fuck the police. I'll take one or all of you right now. One of you is going to get yours." The suspect stepped away from Victim [redacted], raised his weapon, pointed it in Deputy Donnan's direction, and fired one shot. Deputy Donnan did not see a muzzle flash but heard the gunshot. Deputy Donnan fired two rounds at the suspect and then heard gunfire from the other deputies.

After a short period of time, he saw the suspect was down and being approached by deputies from the north side of the [redacted] residence.

On 01-04-95 at 0055 hours, Investigators interviewed DEPUTY JEFF GLEASON, #[redacted], Unit 11B P.M.'s, [redacted] [redacted] hours, who stated his first response to the location resulted in a very brief stay because he was [redacted]. He responded to the Newgrove location because the call came out, "Deputies need assistance." He was only there for about 30 seconds, when he observed Deputy Donnan and another deputy handcuff the suspect. He then left [redacted]. He did not have any conversation with the suspect.

Later in the evening, he received a call to handle a "415 family" at the same address on Newgrove. Because of his knowledge regarding the prior incident that day, he contacted other units to meet him at the location. When he arrived, Sergeant [redacted] was already there. They both exited their vehicles, which they parked on the north side of Newgrove, across from the location. He heard screaming but couldn't tell from where it was originating. They started to approach the house, when he observed the suspect, in the east yard of the location, holding a gun in one hand and a female in a headlock with the other.

He and Sergeant [redacted] retreated and took cover behind his radio car and put out a broadcast. The female kept breaking free and running into the rear yard, out of his view. The suspect ran after her and brought her back toward the front. The suspect kept pointing his gun at the female and yelling at the deputies. The deputies were giving the suspect orders to drop his gun and let the female go. These commands were ignored. The female finally broke free and ran towards the rear yard of the residence. By this time, several other units had arrived. The suspect ran after the female, and she came out of the residence through the front door, pursued by the suspect. They were now in the front yard, and the suspect kept waving his gun and yelling, "Shoot me. Shoot me. I'm gonna kill her if you don't shoot me."

The deputies continued to order the suspect to "Drop the gun. Lay down. Let her go." But he continued to wave the gun and yell back at them to shoot him. Sergeant [redacted] retrieved the Arwen from his radio car and proceeded to the west side of a cinder block wall, west of the location. Sergeant [redacted] fired the Arwen one time and appeared to have struck the suspect. The suspect leveled his gun at the deputies on the west side of the block wall and fired one round at them. Deputy Gleason fired three rounds at the suspect while standing behind his radio car. Deputy Yoshino was southwest of Deputy Gleason and had taken cover behind the open driver's door of his radio car. Deputy Dunkel had taken cover behind the open passenger door of Deputy Yoshino's radio car. It should be noted Deputy Yoshino's car was parked facing in a southerly direction, near the location's driveway apron.

Deputy Gleason didn't hear any other gunshots other than his own and the suspect's. After the suspect was shot, he fell down. Deputy Gleason approached him and retrieved a gun from under the suspect's armpit.

On 01-04-95 at 0135 hours, Investigators interviewed Deputy DEREK YOSHINO, #[redacted], Unit 111V P.M.'s, who stated he was on routine patrol, when heard a 242, 415 family call on Newgrove. He was aware of the incident at the location earlier that day and decided to respond to assist. As he turned west onto Newgrove, he observed two radio cars parked on the north side of the street. He looked to his left and observed a male Black holding a female Black around the neck. They were both in front of the garage area at [redacted]. The male Black was holding a handgun, which he was pointing at the female. He observed Deputies Brown and Donnan on the west side of a cinder block wall, on the west side of the location.

Deputy Yoshino positioned his vehicle in the street facing south, in front of the location, parallel to 20th Street west. He heard the male Black repeatedly state, "Kill me. Kill me, or I'm going to kill her," while alternately pointing his gun at the female and at the deputies behind the cinder block wall. At one point, he aimed his gun directly at Deputy Yoshino. The female kept trying to get away, and the male Black kept knocking her to the ground. At one point, he pistol whipped her across the head.

Deputy Yoshino heard someone say, "Let the Sergeant decide what we're going to do." He also heard Sergeant [redacted] and Deputy Brown repeatedly tell the male Black, "Put the gun down now. Drop the gun." But the male Black did not comply.

Sergeant [redacted] retrieved the Arwen and was behind the cinder block wall, when the male Black left the immediate vicinity of the female and started walking towards the wall. Deputy Yoshino heard the Arwen fire one time and saw a muzzle flash emit from the suspect's gun. The gun was directed at the deputies behind the cinder block wall. Deputy Yoshino fired one round at the suspect and then heard several other deputies fire. He watched the suspect and observed him fall. He and several other deputies approached the suspect, who was lying face down on the ground. Deputy Yoshino saw the gun between the suspect's torso and arm. Deputy Yoshino was not aware Deputy Dunkel was positioned on the passenger's side of his vehicle until after the shooting was over.

On 01-04-95 at approximately 0100 hours, Investigators interviewed DEPUTY MARK DUNKEL, M/24, #[redacted], Unit 111T3, P.M.'s, [redacted] hours. It should be noted that due to a technical malfunction in the tape-recorder, this interview did not record.

On Friday, 01-13-95, at approximately 1600 hours, Investigators re-interviewed Deputy Dunkel, who stated he was not assigned to respond but heard units dispatched to "return to 415 family." A moment later, he heard a unit transmit "hostage situation. Suspect has a gun." He then decided to respond to the location, and upon his arrival, observed Deputies Yoshino and Donnan behind a radio car, which was parked across the street from the location. As he exited his radio car, he heard screaming coming from a male and female. He approached Deputies Donnan and Yoshino and took a position at the right rear trunk of their radio car. Deputy Yoshino was behind the driver's door of the radio car, and Deputy Donnan was at the left rear.

At this time Deputy Dunkel was able to see the suspect in front of the house, with a gun in his right hand, holding a female in a headlock with his left arm. The female was yelling, "Let me go. Let me go. Shoot him. He's going to kill me." The suspect was calling the female names and yelling at the deputies, "Go ahead and shoot me," while alternately pointing the gun at the female's head and the deputies.

Deputy Dunkel did not have a clear shot as the female was standing upright and struggling with the suspect over the gun. At one point the female was on her knees, and the suspect pointed the gun downward, at the top of her head. Deputy Dunkel heard other deputies calling the suspect by his name and state, "Put the gun down. Give up. Let her go," while at the same time telling the female to stay down. The female had a dagger in her right hand but never attempted to stab the suspect. This situation continued for approximately three to five minutes.

At some point, the suspect moved away from the female and pointed his gun directly at the deputies behind the cinder block wall. Deputy Dunkel heard three rounds fired but was unable to distinguish whether those shots were fired from an Arwen or a regular weapon. When the suspect moved away from the female, Deputy Dunkel had a clear shot at him and fired two rounds. The female then got up and was preventing him a clear shot. She dropped down again, and Deputy Dunkel fired at the suspect two more times.

Deputy Dunkel stated the suspect clearly pointed his gun directly at him and the other deputies. Deputy Dunkel believed the suspect was firing at them, and there was an ongoing gun battle between the suspect and the deputies. After the shooting, the suspect turned towards the female, with his arms down along his side. He took a few steps and then appeared as if he intentionally lay down on his back. Sergeant [redacted] and Deputies Gleason and Dunkel approached and handcuffed the suspect. Deputy Gleason recovered the gun from along the suspect's right side.

On 01-04-95 at approximately 0210 hours, Investigators interviewed [redacted], MW/29, DOB: [redacted], [redacted], independent cab driver, Checker Cab Company, [redacted]. Witness [redacted] stated that on 01-03-95, between 6:00 and 6:30 P.M., he was dispatched to [redacted], Lancaster, to transport a client out of the local area. When he arrived at the location, he saw a radio car parked facing west on Newgrove, west of 20th Street. He pulled into the driveway at [redacted], exited his vehicle, and heard yelling and screaming, which he thought was children playing. As he approached the front door, the noise got very loud, and he heard deputies yell at him "get out of there." He saw a black arm, holding a gun, reach through the front window of the residence.

Very frightened and in fear for his safety, he jumped over the west cinder block wall and took refuge in the neighbor's yard. He heard a single gunshot and then went inside the neighbor's house. He heard a "weird type" of gunfire and then six or seven regular or what he described as normal gunshots. He waited inside the the neighbor's residence. He was not able to observe any other actions of either the suspect or the deputies because he was in the southwest area of the house. He did hear the deputies tell the suspect to put the gun down numerous times while a female was screaming very loud.

On 01-04-95 at approximately 0245 hours, Investigators interviewed Sergeant [redacted], #[redacted], P.M. field sergeant, who stated he heard a 415 family, 242 now disturbance call dispatched to a field unit at a nearby location. Sergeant [redacted] was the first unit to arrive and parked his radio car facing west on the north side of Newgrove Street, directly across from [redacted]. When he arrived, there was no apparent disturbance until he observed the suspect and the victim in the northeast corner of the side yard. The suspect had something in his hand, and his arm was around the victim's neck. After making these observations, he broadcast the information to responding units and moved his radio car further west, on Newgrove.

Sergeant [redacted] heard the suspect yelling and screaming but was unable to understand what he was saying. While this was occurring, a taxi cab pulled into the driveway at the location. The driver had gotten out of the cab and began running in a westerly direction, away from the location. He jumped over a fence along the west property line. Other units had arrived at the scene and were taking positions around the location.

Sergeant [redacted] observed the suspect pushing the victim, whom he knew to be crippled and to have difficulty standing. This knowledge was due to the fact that Sergeant [redacted] had been at the location earlier that day. Sergeant [redacted] took a position in front of the residence, at [redacted]. He could hear yelling and screaming between the victim and the suspect but had temporarily lost sight of them. He next saw them both emerge from the front door of the residence, at which time, Sergeant [redacted] observed a gun in the suspect's right hand.

The suspect was shouting, "Shoot me. Kill me, or I'm going to kill her." Deputies at the scene were attempting to talk the suspect into dropping his weapon. By this time the suspect had the victim down in a grassy area, between the driveway and the west side of the residence. The suspect was pointing his weapon at the victim and stated, "I wish you would shoot me now, or I'm going to shoot her." The suspect continued to wave his gun alternately between the victim and deputies in the street.

Sergeant [redacted] retrieved the Arwen from the trunk of his radio car "as an alternative" to shooting the suspect and endangering the hostage. He positioned himself on the west side of a cement cinder block wall, along the west property line of the residence. Deputies Brown and Donnan were alongside him, and he advised them that if the suspect separated himself from the victim, he was going to shoot him with the Arwen. The deputies continued to try and persuade the suspect to drop his gun and give up, but these efforts met with no avail.

Sergeant [redacted] observed the victim lying on the ground while the suspect was pointing the gun at her head, as if he was going to shoot her. The suspect stepped back approximately two to three feet and turned toward Sergeant [redacted] allowing him a clear shot. Sergeant [redacted] fired one round from the Arwen, striking the suspect in the upper left chest area. [redacted] immediately followed with another round. This round glanced off the side of the suspect's head. Neither round appeared to have affected the suspect, who leveled his gun in Sergeant [redacted] direction, causing Sergeant [redacted] to believe the suspect had serious intent to shoot at them.

After Sergeant [redacted] fired the second round from the Arwen, he heard gunfire coming from Deputies Brown and Donnan. Sergeant [redacted] then fired two more rounds from the Arwen. Sergeant [redacted] stated he did not recall seeing a muzzle flash emitting from the suspect's gun nor does he know if the suspect actually fired his weapon.

On 01-05-95 at approximately 1030 hours, Investigators went to the Antelope Valley Medical Center and conducted an interview with Suspect HANIBLE, MB/25, who had been admitted for gunshot wounds sustained on the evening of 01-03-95 at the crime scene. Suspect Hanible was being treated by Dr. Gerrit Brouwer and Nurse Denise Loffer. They provided Investigators with hospital documents, stating the suspect sustained multiple soft tissue wounds secondary to gunshots, including left upper arm, left lateral chest wall and axilla. The suspect sustained a through and through gunshot wound to the left posterior thigh and a single entry wound to the right posterior thigh, with no exit. (See evidence held #3). The suspect was in stable condition upon being admitted.

Present during this interview was Deputy D. Saenz, #[redacted], Antelope Valley Patrol. Suspect Hanible was advised of his Constitutional Rights per SHAD 477 by Deputy Lyons. Suspect Hanible stated he understood his rights and waived his right to silence and the presence of an attorney. He stated "I just wanted them to kill me. I would have killed myself, but I didn't have any bullets. I drank 1 1/2, 48 ouncers, of "Old English" and a bottle of "E&J" brandy. I don't use drugs. I smoke marijuana, but I didn't smoke any that day." When asked where the gun came from, he stated, "I found it in the desert two weeks ago. That's the story I'm staying with." Suspect Hanible stated he had the gun secreted in his coat pocket, which was in [redacted]'s bedroom closet. "I didn't know what I was doing because I was drunk. I don't remember hitting [redacted] or [redacted]. I've never been violent before. I believe God had a plan for me, and that's why I wanted to die. But now, I think God has kept me alive for other reasons." He stated the reason he wanted to die was because it was his third strike. Suspect Hanible stated he loved [redacted] and would never do anything to hurt her.

On 01-05-95 at approximately 1045 hours, Investigators contacted Suspect Hanible's [redacted], female Black, [redacted], who stated that on 01-04-95, [redacted] contacted her and told her what had happened. Mrs. [redacted] stated, "Every once in a while, Carl gets violent when he drinks. When the deputies brought him to my house the other day, he was in his boxer shorts, challenging the deputies to fight. After the deputies left, he put on his clothes, paced around the house, and went in and out the front door several times, slamming it behind him. He finally left on foot, swearing, saying he's not afraid to die. He was acting irrationally, swearing at passing motorists." Investigators asked Mrs. [redacted] how she would have felt if her [redacted] had been killed, and she replied, "I love my [redacted] but it would have been a burden lifted from me. His behavior has aged me. He is better off in prison. If he fights there, it's his problem. At least he can't get any alcohol."

On 01-05-95 at 1110 hours, Investigator returned to the residence of Victim [redacted], who was in the process of moving from the location. Victim [redacted] was going to live with her [redacted]. Investigators again examined the crime scene.

On 01-05-95 at 1125 hours, Investigators interviewed [redacted], FW/31, DOB: [redacted]. Witness [redacted] lives at the residence, immediately west of the victim. She related that late Tuesday, she heard arguing coming from the [redacted] residence. She looked out her north facing front window and saw police cars at the [redacted] residence. She went next door to see if [redacted] was okay and observed Carl in the back seat of the radio car. A deputy told her that [redacted] was okay. A short time later, [redacted]'s sons came to her house and asked to borrow bags because they were moving. The boys went on to tell her that Carl and their [redacted] were fighting, and Carl had thrown one of them against the wall.

Ms. [redacted] looked out her east facing window and observed Carl walking from the front of the [redacted] garage, in through the front door. She then asked the [redacted] boys if they were sure Carl had been taken away by the deputies, and they replied, "Yes." A moment later, she heard screaming and arguing coming from the [redacted] residence, so she called 911. A few moments later, she saw the deputies arrive and park in the street, in front of the [redacted] house. At this point, she made observations only through her north facing front window as she was fearful of going into the rooms on the east side of her residence. She heard gunshots but did not hear any statements because she had her music on very loud. The only observation she made was Carl attempting to fight with the deputies as he was being placed into the ambulance. She observed Victim [redacted] walk from her [redacted]'s) residence toward the police car, which was parked in front of her [redacted]') house.

On 01-05-95 at approximately 1145 hours, Investigators contacted the residence at [redacted], who stated they heard four shots but did not see anything. They were apparent in the fact they did not want to talk with Investigators. This was not necessarily because they had any knowledge but because they did not want to be involved.

At 01-05-95 at approximately noon, Investigators contacted [redacted], FH/37, DOB: [redacted], who stated she lives at the location with her mother, [redacted], FH/47, and her son, 10-years-old. Witness [redacted] was in her sewing room, which faces south onto the street, when she heard loud arguing and yelling. She went outside and saw the deputies putting Suspect Hanible, who was handcuffed, into the radio car.

A short time later, she heard more yelling and thought it was the kids outside, playing. She went to her front door to check, and as she opened it, her next-door neighbor, [redacted], was coming up her walkway. [redacted] yelled to her, "Call 911. He's got a gun." Witness [redacted] went back inside her house, called 911, and was told that deputies were on their way. She went back outside and saw Suspect Hanible in front of Victim [redacted]'s residence, with a handgun. Deputies arrived a few moments later, and she heard them telling Suspect Hanible to "put the gun down. You don't need that. Let's talk." Suspect Hanible replied, "You have to kill me. Shoot me." Suspect Hanible had Victim [redacted] in a headlock and kept waving the gun around, pointing it alternately at Victim [redacted] and the deputies. This continued for about an hour, when she observed the suspect fire a single shot at the deputies. She saw a muzzle flash coming from the suspect's gun. The deputies shot back, approximately eight to ten times, and were yelling at [redacted] to get away from the suspect.

Witness [redacted] told Investigators that [redacted] told Witness [redacted]'s mother that she, [redacted], saw Suspect Hanible walking south on 21st Street, toward Victim [redacted]s, just before the shooting. Suspect Hanible was holding a bottle and ranting and raving how he was going to kill his family.

At 01-05-95 at approximately 1220 hours, Investigators interviewed [redacted], FH/33, DOB: [redacted], who stated she lives at the location with her three daughters, nine, eleven, and thirteen.

They were all at home when the incident occurred. She did not recall any prior problems at the [redacted] residence. She had seen Suspect Hanible there and knew he was an ex-con. On the day of the incident, between 4:00 and 4:30 P.M., she was cleaning her dining room table, which is in front of her south window, directly across from the [redacted] residence. She heard sirens and saw three radio cars, one in the driveway of the [redacted] residence and two in the street. She observed a deputy at the [redacted]'s front door and saw Suspect Hanible, clad only in his boxer shorts, being escorted handcuffed from the residence. He was placed in the back seat of a radio car.

Approximately one hour later at 6:00 P.M., as she was leaving her house to deliver cookies to a neighbor down the street, she heard yelling. At first she thought it was kids from the neighborhood playing, but when she got outside, she heard the voice of a woman pleading, "Oh God, help me. No. Please let me go. You're hurting me. Somebody help me." She looked in the direction of the voice and observed Victim [redacted] being held in a headlock by Suspect Hanible. They were in the east yard of the [redacted] residence.

She continued on to [redacted]s house next door and told her to call 911. She was waiting on [redacted]s front porch, when she heard sirens and observed approximately six police cars arrive at the location. She heard a deputy yell, "He's got a gun," at which time, she looked and saw a gun in Suspect Hanible's left hand as he continued to hold Victim [redacted] in a headlock with his right arm. Suspect Hanible was waving the gun around and alternately pointing it at Victim [redacted]'s head and the deputies. The deputies repeatedly told Suspect Hanible to "Put down the gun. You don't have to do that." This went on for some time, during which Suspect Hanible repeatedly shouted at the deputies, "Shoot me. You have to shoot me." Suspect Hanible fired one shot at the deputies, who then fired six to eight shots at him. She saw a muzzle flash emit from Suspect Hanible's gun, which had a different sound to it than the guns fired by the deputies. Before the shooting, the deputies had taken positions behind the radio cars, and some took positions behind a cinder block wall, along the west side of the [redacted] residence.

She observed one of the deputies had a rifle. After the shooting, the deputies yelled at Victim [redacted] to get away from Suspect Hanible. She observed Victim [redacted] go towards the deputies, who were behind the block wall. They grabbed her and pulled her to safety. The deputies then approached Suspect Hanible, who was lying on the ground.

On 01-05-95 the facts of this case were presented to Deputy District Attorney Jeff Gootman, of the Antelope Valley branch of the district attorney's office, who filed five felony counts against Suspect Hanible, which included 273 P.C., child endangering, 273.5 P.C., spousal abuse, 236 P.C., false imprisonment, 417 P.C., brandishing a weapon at a peace officer, and 12021 P.C., felon with a gun.

On 01-06-95 Suspect Hanible was arraigned in Division 1 of the Antelope Valley Municipal Court, at which time, he waived a preliminary hearing and pled guilty to the above charges. He was sentenced to five years eight months. Suspect Hanible will be formally sentenced in the Antelope Valley Superior Court on 01-30-95.

On 01-18-95 Investigators were contacted and requested to respond to the Los Angeles County Medical Center, Safety Police Office, at which time they retrieved a bullet (evidence held item #3) from Investigator [redacted] [redacted], #[redacted]. This bullet had been removed from Suspect Hanible's leg. On 02-01-95 evidence held item #3 was submitted for comparison with all other firearms evidence in this case. A detailed report regarding the firearms evidence will be prepared by the Firearms Section of the Sheriff's Crime Lab and made a permanent part of this file.

Investigation continuing, with further reports to follow.
